“ To my husband my soulmate and the father of my children. I was 22 years old with 2 small boys, you not only loved me but loved them and raised them as they were yours. We were blessed with 2 boys of our own, but you never saw any difference in the 4 of them, You were a wonderful husband, provider, love of my life. Just know I loved you so much and because of the man you were your boys with take care of their momma,
I am going to miss you so much, I Love you,

Your Loving Wife,
Janice Duncan

“ I remember Danny as a young man when we grew up in the Ballard Rd Subdivision in Forest Park. We spent a lot of time playing ping pong in our basement. He was a fine young man and I'm sure he became a good husband and father. Condolences to his family.

“ Thank you for your service to our country, for being a good husband to my niece, raising 4 fine young men. You always told me that you did not know why I looked so much younger than you and I would tease you that your were!! 5 days older...
You will be missed and I am thankful you are with the lord and resting in his arm. Till we meet again. Love, Aunt Brucie
