“ For Ronnie

*Ronnie, Ronnie, Ronnie, oh beautiful soul—
showing up with smiles,
a spirit of service,
a steady light in our midst.*

*Quietly you planted,
quietly you tended,
quietly you harvested
alongside us all.
No trumpet needed,
only the quiet music of your care.*

*Now the earth lies still,
a sacred field at rest.
This is your season of peace,
a time for your soul to breathe in the gentle hush of eternity.*

*Yet the seeds you scattered remain—rooted in love,
watered by memory,
and warmed by the sunshine of every heart you have touched.*

*They will blossom in due season,
bearing fruit in our lives,
until we too shall rest,
and in the great turning of time,
rise again together,
a harvest reunited,
forever whole.*

Love and Respect from

Millicent, a fellow gardener.
