“ I'm so blessed and privileged to call you FRIEND and hairdresser for over 30 years. I can see your smile, hear your laughter and feel your inspiration. You were one of a kind. You had an enormous heart made of gold. You have blessed so many people. The people that didn't know you truly lost out on knowing someone wonderful. I remember Grandma Claborn folding towels and Megan doing her homework in the back room. Many times I sat and talked to both of them. Really enjoyed our talks. Phylis and I enjoyed harassing each other. You win forever be loved and missed.

“ Oh the memories I have! From my mom’s stories of her friendship with the Claborn’s to my own personal memories of the family get togethers playing games and laughing until we felt sick! I’m forever going to cherish these wonderful memories in my heart. Heaven sure is full of beautiful angels! I can’t help but to imagining the celebrations and reunions up there!
My condolences and prayers to the family. My love extends to all of you.

“ Prayers for each of you as you grieve for your precious mom, grandma, sister and best friend. Praise our Lord she's walking the streets of gold with her loved ones that went before her. Many sweet memories of the Claborn clan at Rockdale Baptist Church from softball with Bobby Potts, church trips, Sunday night dinners around the Claborn's kitchen table after church and life at the "beauty shop!" You are missed already, but no doubt healed. Thank you for the years we shared, your kindness, your generosity but most of all your witness for Jesus. Love to the family! ❤️

“ When we bought our first home in Decatur off Rainbow Forest Drive the Claborns lived across the street. Soon all the kids including Denise came over to make friends. Denise was a beautiful little girl with blond hair and blue eyes. She had a tan so dark we thought she was from the islands or black. I paid her and her brother Leon $1.00 each to guard my yard that we'd recently tilled and reseeded. We were glad she and her family moved to Rockdale. I will miss Denise. Until we meet again on God's Golden Shore. RIP.

I am so sorry to hear about Denise. From our days at Park Avenue Baptist Church, I remember how close you all were, and I know this hurts so much. May God give each of you His peace in the days to come, until you all are reunited in His Heaven.
