“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones.

“ What an honor and privilege it was to have known Dennis - Have y'all ever noticed that when the first thing you remember about a friend is their smile - You realize just how special their heart was. I remember Dennis loved to have fun cutting up and laughing and making you feel good. This world was a better place because of Dennis - You will be missed tremendously. I wish I could see the Angels faces when they see your big hearted smiling face. Love Ya Brother!!! My Heartfelt Condolences to all family!!!

“ I really don't know what to say because Dennis was so much to me for 35 years. In my mind, he wasn't blood, but he was the closest thing to a brother I could ever have. He loved me, Kevin and our boys more than we could imagine. He was always there for us. Anytime, day or night, he was there. Dennis never turned his back on his friends. If you wanted it or needed it and he had it or could get it - it was yours. My heart is heavy and his passing doesn't seem real yet. I'm not ready to say goodbye and just can't imagine how life will be without him. RIP my dear, sweet, beautiful friend. I love you so very much and you will always be in my heart.

“ Not only was he always kind to my sister and I, but I remember Dennis being there for me when I couldn't count on anyone else. He'd gladly drop what he was doing no matter what time it was and be right there for you. You were and always will be one of the best father figures that was brought into my life and for that your memory will forever live in my heart.
