“ So many memories of Donna but I will always see her three aisles over at FBCC clapping, swaying, waving her arm, joyfully worshipping Jesus in song.
Donna's passing is so hard and we are all going to miss her, but praises to our merciful Father as we know Donna is now a singing saint in her forever home.
To her precious family, may you feel His presence, peace, and comfort in a very real way.

“ I attended CFBC with Donna many years ago. I remember when she and Jay married. I remember how committed she was to the church. But I also remember her work at the courthouse. She was so pleasant, helpful, and made a visit there very easy. God's peace to her family.
