“ no memories, but my heartfelt sympathy at your loss. I feel your pain as I lost my beloved Fred in 2010 and it still hurts..I think of him every day. I want to write up a memory book for his 3 grown children. I think it will ease some of the pain since I wrote a poem about him and felt it was healing to me. I wish you the best. GOD BLESS YOU.

“ Leroy, Martha and I are so saddened at your loss of Doris. At our gatherings she was always a bright and engaging personality, and a pleasure to be around.
Please take comfort in the certainty that at some point we will all be reunited at the side of our Lord.
Thinking of you, old friend.

“ Leroy, Ben just called me with this tragic news. We are stunned and saddened for you and for the rest of your family. I always thought Doris the most beautiful from our reunions, and I silently gave her credit, though I never asked, for making the both of you the best dressed of our little clan of classmates and spouses. Feeling sad for you old friend.
