She was born on November 16, 1921, in Andalusia, AL, to her parents, Charles and Mary Alice Spurlin. After her marriage in 1940 to husband of 65 years, Rev. Nolan Dell Lee, they both attended Beulah Heights University in Atlanta, GA. Dorothy was later awarded an honorary degree in Biblical Studies for her 100th birthday, the oldest living alum at the time. Credentialed by the General Council of the Assemblies of God (USA), she and Nolan were home missionary pastors pioneering three new churches in Indiana and Kentucky. They pastored throughout their married life across five states. Dorothy was a Sunday School teacher and played the piano and organ wherever they pastored. She and Nolan were also foreign missionaries to Africa and Russia where they shared the Gospel and distributed 100's of Bibles. Dorothy was a licensed minister until her passing. Dorothy was also a piano teacher for over 50 years and a member of the Florida Teachers Music Guild.
