“*Dear Angie, Alison and Stoney and family
It seems I've known Ed most all of my professional life. We fought a lot of our industry wars together and regardless of whether we were on the same side or not, and usually we were, Ed was always a gentleman and a friend. The last time we spoke, it was to console me upon the passing of my wife last summer. May God's blessing be with you all.

“*Ed, God now holds you in his arms , but we will forever hold you in our hearts . I have memories that bring happiness and laughter — and then a deep sadness when I realize that we will share no more for right now ! I am holding on to that wonderful day when we are all reunited ! Knowing you are with loved ones in your new home gives us all joy and peace .
Thank you for being a kind and loving uncle to all of your nieces and nephews . I Love you, Beth* “ Knowing Ed will always be one of my greatest blessings. He was truly one of the finest gentlemen I've ever known. Ed's integrity ran deep, and his generosity of spirit knew no bounds. He had a calm gentility yet also a dry sense of humor that kept me laughing daily. He gave of himself to everyone, asking very little in return, and he brought dignity and grace to a world that was lacking in those esteemable qualities at times. So much love to Angi, Stony, Alison, Doug, Sarah, Joe & Jackson.

*Angie and family,
My friendship with Ed goes years back in MHS when I'd listen to Ed on piano and Jimmy (my late hubby) on drums. Then came S GA College for both and more good times. I always valued Ed's friendship and kindness to me when Jimmy passed in 2006. He would check on me frequently. He was truly a man who cared about others with a heart of gold. I'll miss my friend and I'll pray for you, Angie, as you begin this next chapter of life. Love to you and the children. Carol Justice Bell*
