“ What to say, I miss you Uncle, I don't think my head has wrapped around that you are truly gone.

There are so many things I want to apologize for, so many things I want to thank you for, I just wish I could hug my Uncle Eddie. You have always been there for me and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for sharing your love with me. I love you Uncle Eddie!

“ Too many memories to speak of. Eddie was a fine man. I had told a friend I'd like to go see him just the other day. I pray to the family that God will heal their broken hearts and to his wife and Tiffany I pray that God will give you the strength to carry on during this time of grief. We were friends for many many years I loved him and I'm so sorry he's gone. He is one that will truly be missed by everyone. With my deepest sympathies... Eddie my friend rest in peace. Eternal Love, Tanya

“ Eddie and I were childhood friends! We lost touch then reconnected when he reached out to me for advice with the care of his precious mamma and brother! That is when our sweet journey began and I was blessed to meet and be a part of the entire families lives! You will forever be a part of me and my heart aches for our loss! I'm only a holler away! And, I am praying for all of you as you take this journey!
