“ Betty Jean was a blessing to know! We only knew her these past 5 years since moving to Georgia. But she would smile and smirk and say some of the sweetest and funniest things. She brightened our lives and we will miss her. Our love and prayers are with your dear family. ❤️ Ray, Karen & Gail

“ My aunt Jeannie (as I have always called her), was the sweetest, most generous person you could ever meet. She was the life of any gathering, and the person you most wanted to sit next to. So many, but a few Memories would include, a trip to Nashville which included her best friend (my mom) which I still remember to this day, allowing me to recover after surgery at her home (so I could be closer to my Dr), and endless laughing till I cried. Jeannie was generous with her time and her live. Heaven should be ready for, she's sliding into home plate! ❤️
