“ The Look Good Feel Better warehouse crew loved Emily! She was a kind person and a hard worker. Soft spoken, yes, but you couldn't pull the wool over her eyes ... she was sharp as a tack! Sending sincere condolences to her family and friends. Love you, Emily. ”

“Mrs. Emily, as we called her at Newton Baptist Church, was so precious to us all. She had her special place to sit and was always there. She was very petite in size it had such a big heart. When a member of the Ambassador Class was sick, we would give me a check and ask me to go get them a meal. She loved her church and supported all it's ministries. When a trip was planned, she would be the first one to sign up to go. She loved being with her church family. We miss her sweet spirit, her smile and her words of encouragement. She always sent get well cards and would write a special note and enclose a little Bible signed “Love, Emily Maddox”. I have a box full of those little Bibles! I can only imagine the reunion going on now with her Lord and Savior, her precious husband, other family members and a host of her church family. Till we meet again, Mrs. Emily, I love you and miss you.

“Greg and Henrietta. I am so sorry about your loss. Aunt Emily was a very special lady. When Pat and I were teenagers she was a big part of our lives. When she and your dad visited she would sit in our bedroom with us and watch us dance and talk to us about what was going on in our lives. When we lost Lisa she was a great support for me. We will keep you and your family in our prayers
