

Emma Jean LeGrand

April 22, 1921 - October 18, 2014

Jean Burns LeGrand, a resident of Conyers, Georgia, passed away Saturday, October 18, 2014 at age 93. She was born April 22, 1921 on a farm in Banks County, Georgia. After her parents lost the farm during the depression, the family moved around South Georgia before settling in Macon where she graduated high school. She graduated from the University of Georgia with a degree in Dietetics. After graduation, she went to work at the C&S Bank in Macon later transferring to an Atlanta branch. She left the bank to become the financial secretary at Peachtree Road United Methodist Church. She and her husband, Nathan W. LeGrand met at Peachtree Road UMC and married June 20, 1959. After moving to Conyers in 1978, they became active members of Salem United Methodist Church. For many years at Salem, she assisted with the annual Snapping Shoals EMC BBQ, was the Joy Class treasurer and was active in the Salem Seniors. She is survived by her husband, Nathan W. LeGrand; and daughter, Margaret Ann LeGrand (Doug Alsup, fiance'). She was preceded in death by her parents, Ruby and Arnold Burns; sisters, Margaret Burns Turn, Olive Ann Burns Sparks; and brother, William Arnold (Billy) Burns. A Memorial Service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Salem UMC, 3962 Salem Rd., Covington, GA 30016; the American Heart Association, PO Box 840692, Dallas, TX 75284; the American Kidney Foundation, 6110 Executive Blvd., Suite 1010, Rockville, MD 20852; or the American Cancer Society, 2200 Lake Blvd. NE, Atlanta, GA 30319. “ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!
