“Freddie and Eva - Please accept my sympathy on the loss of your son. I can personally relate to your suffering. I confirmed with my cousin, Bill Eisenhardt, this was indeed the Freddie (and Robert) I remember from Marion. I hope your pain lessens with time and your memories sustain the joy you experienced during Eric's life.

“ To The Hunsucker Family,

Some of you knew me and some of you did not, however, I am so deeply shocked, troubled and so deeply sorry for your loss. I loved Eric more than life itself and we were partners for a time. I will never forget our love and friendship together. He knew this since I shared that sentiment with him always. He was a kind, gentle, loving, and intelligent man whom I have had the privilege and honor to have shared my life with.

Our life paths separated us but my love for him was great and never wavered. I am at a loss for words since I just now found out via a mutual friend that we have lost a wonderful and loving person.

Amy, Tim... I am truly sorry. Your girls have grown so beautifully and I know they miss their uncle. To Paul... I am so sorry for the loss of your brother, mentor, and friend. To his parents and his family members whom I didn't have an opportunity to meet, I know that all of you loved him dearly. He spoke of all of you in a deeply loving and protective way always. He loved his family and everyone who knew him knew that without question.

I can hear still remember his laughter and I will never forget his love. May he rest in peace and may all of you find peace in your hearts that he is watching over all of you.

Respectfully Yours,

Joseph John Messina-Rivera III

*Joe,
I was so happy to see this. Me and Mom tried to find you during Eric's last days, but couldn't find contact information for you.
We all so appreciate your kind words. I know Eric thought a lot of you.
Your kind words warmed my heart. We miss him so much.
Amy*

“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ I knew Eric from J.H. House Elementary School through our high school years at RCHS. I remember when I was little, I didn't really know how to pronounce Eric's last name so as a kid would do, I pronounced it, Eric "Honey"sucker. It was later on in elementary school that I learned it was Hunsucker and I then said it appropriately. I will always remember that and have fond memories of him from school. I was so shocked and saddened to hear of his passing. Unfortunately, due to my job, I will be unable to attend the visitation or funeral service but please know that it's not because I don't want to be there to show my respects. My thoughts and prayers go out to all his family and friends in your loss of his beautiful life. May God Bless you all and comfort you with His love and the wonderful memories of Eric.

“ Eric was an amazing friend to me in high school. Even after reconnecting many years later, it was like the time between didn't matter. He was one of the best people I ever had in my life and will always remember him fondly. He was kind, funny, inclusive and compassionate. A truly beautiful soul, a rarity in my experience. My warmest condolences to all who had the privilege to have him in their lives and of course his wonderful family. Many prayers of peace and courage for them during this time of sorrow.

“ My thoughts are with his whole family and friends. I knew him during my 3 years at Edwards Middle School as he was in my class year. I am always saddened to hear a fellow classmate passed away, especially one the same age as me and who we would have thought had a lot more life to live and experience. I will add him to the Gone But Not Forgotten list on the Edwards Middle School facebook page I created. <https://www.facebook.com/groups/72998794750/>

“ I can only imagine what you all are going through. What a handsome young man! Our prayers for you and your family and friends. Just reading the messages so far indicate what a special young man he was and how much he meant to so many. I'm sorry I never got to meet him. Know that we care and if there is anything we can do just let us know. We love you! Jane (Gillespie) and Mark Beard

“ Words cannot express my sadness for your loss. Eric was a wonderful young man and a pleasure to know and teach. His genuine kindness and congenial personality are just two of many wonderful assets that I remember about Eric. Our entire family loved and will continue to hold a special place in our hearts for Eric and your family. Please know Eric was loved by so many. God bless all of you.
