“ Brenda, I am so sorry that you have lost your mother. So many of that little Sunday School at Highland Park have passed on. Can't believe my mama has been gone over 11 years now. May God comfort you and give you His peace.

My memories of my Aunt Evelyn are of her precious smile and shy laugh! She cooked and raised 5 wonderful children and kept a spotless clean home. She had the warmest and loving hugs and always made you feel special when you were around her. Im so at peace that she is now with her beloved hisband Sleeoy who she missed so much. There are no longer tears in her eyes nor pain in her heart as she is with her family and loved ones and our Lord Jesus Christ. We will miss you Aunt Evelyn but a new star shines in our heaven tonight. Much Love Carolyn & family.
