“ Mom,
It's been a week now since you left me. You had a beautiful service just like you planned. Guess what? I was able to keep it together long up enough to speak at your service and tell the world what a wonderful person and incredible mother you were. I miss you more each day. I'm really not sure how to carry on without you. You were my best friend, my Rock, My Confident, and most of all the one who loved me unconditionally no matter my faults. I am so thankful and so blessed that I was able to be with you everyday for the last 3 1/2 years. My whole life revolved around you. My family misses you terribly. Malia still goes to your room each morning to say good morning and each night to tell you goodnight. Bless her heart, she just doesn't understand. Kayla is so sad and it breaks my heart. Loosing her granddaddy was one thing, but losing you is so different because it was so sudden and no one expected it. I hate it that Kayla was the one that found you that terrible morning and I don't know if she will ever get over it. Mom, just know one thing and that is that I am the man that I am and a better man because of you. You taught me to work hard, love hard, be honest, but most of all to love the Lord with all my heart. I know one day you will be standing at the gates to welcome me home. Until then, know that I will love and miss you everyday for the rest of my life.

Love your son!

David

“ When we both worked at Emory, Florette was the one who was so friendly and kind to everyone. She had everyone laughing and would light up a room with her comments. So sorry we lost touch with each other over the years but I am so happy we did share many many funny times when we were together. Her flame has gone out but will never be forgotten. Miss you Flo Rest in Peace.
