“ My heart felt condolences to the family and friends of Jeanette. So sorry for your loss. I remember her vividly from childhood when my family lived in Atlanta. My mother and her mother were First cousins. This was probably around 1943 as we were small children. I remember playing with Jeanette and Buddy.. years later we met Jeanette and family for a lunch in Banks Corner Ga. She still had the same sweet smile I had remembered as a child. We followed each other thru FB for years.

My condolences go out to the Danforth family. I know that your love for Jeanette was true. She will be missed, but she is with our Savior Jesus Christ Now. Granddad and Grandmom have their kids with them now.

😊❤️ Enjoy her memories !!

~ Chris
