“ One of my favorite to hug! Of course, with permission! Frank and Tim! Looked for them just to be given the opportunity to express God’s love. Praying for each of you, especially, Kay and Tim. So thankful we will hug again!

“ It's hard to sum up how I feel about Frank in words. He always had a smile, laughing about a story he heard and loved Kay, Mark, Tim and Tom so much. Nothing made him happier than to be around their Christian friends at Sunday School and Sunday worship. I visited their new home in Newborn for the first time and he showed me which area (garage) was his and that the rest of the house and flower beds were Kay's. I will truly miss him

Oh how I loved Frank Haynes, his stories, his love for Kay, his boys and their families and most importantly, his Lord. He believed in serving others, giving of himself and being an active member through Sunday School, worship and other opportunities that arose. His presence at RBC will leave a void but knowing he's completely healed and with Jesus brings comfort. May the Haynes family know how much they are loved and know we will be in prayer for each of you.

One of my best friends in East Atlanta and Murphy High School. I've known Frank since the 6th grade at Gordon Elementary. We had some really good times. Always will be missed. Prayers for his family.
