“ I am very sorry to hear of the recent loss of your loved one in death. I send my condolences to the family. Death is truly an enemy just at the Bible says but one day soon it will be done away with under God's Kingdom. Please read 1Corinthians 15:26. At that time our loved ones will be resurrected back to life on a beautiful paradise earth. Please read Jesus words at John 5:28,29.

“ Dearest Pat and Family,
We will remember "Frank the Man" for his spunky personality and his infectious smile. He always looked like he was up to something and he was, usually doing something for others. He will be missed!

“ As a young firefighter for the City of Atlanta, I worked with Captain Mann on numerous occasions. He always was a joy to be around and I learned an extremely alot about my new profession. In the years since he left the department I have thought about him and tried to emulate his cheerful behavior and attitude. I know that there are many within the Fire Department family that were changed because of Frank.

“ Oh my....Gordon died on the same day at 5:59pm in my home. I loved Mr. Mann. He always treated me with respect despite my past. He loved his wife dearly. He loved his children and grandson and pets and was not a man not to show love.... He always asked me to show him my bicep muscle and he would show me his. I have never heard him say one unkind thing about anyone...he was a true man of God ...He did not just walk daily with our LOrd...He walked second by second.....I am sorry I could not be there for Momma and Cathy...I love you all and I am grieving as well...Blessings! I love you....hey...maybe Frank and Gordie walked together to see our Savior.....

“ Kenny, I want to tell you and your family how sorry I am for your loss. Your dad must have been an amazing MANN! That was the most AWESOME eulogy you did I have EVER heard! I'm hoping you will read this since I've posted after the funeral. I remember you telling us the story of how your parents grew up when I was in your Sunday School class. After that I'd see your dad and how he was always so positive, and growing up with non Christian parents, it gave me such hope. Believe it or not that 10th grade Sunday School class was the BEST class i was ever in. You will always be my favorite teacher. Your dad obviously had a great imopact on your life. I am glad he did because you had a HUGE impact on mine! You were a father figure to me, and a spiritual dad. Love and prayers,
Mark

“ Much love to you and your family. Mr. Frank was a special man loved by so many. His infectious personality and wacky sense of humor will never be forgotten, but more importantly the legacy he left behind by serving others and sharing God's love. I am sure he and my pawpaw (Neil Gunter) are having a grand ole' time cracking jokes on each other today.

“ If it wasn't for Mr. Frank, I would have never stepped foot on a roller coaster. I didn't like those things, but Mr. Frank told me all the fun I would be missing with Kenny at Six Flags. After this, Six Flags became mine and Kenny's second home. Frank and Pat always kept me straight with the Lord at their home also, and I will always appreciate their love, and laughing at my stupid jokes. See you soon Mr. Frank. Love ya!

“ Pat and kids: Todd just let me know that Frank went home to Jesus.....how sad we are....how much he will be missed. God used Frank in my son Todd's life in such a powerful way....Todd needed a mentor/daddy, and Frank was there for him. How grateful we both are for the investment Frank, you and your family made in Todd's life. I am praying for you at this time...Todd is working Saturday, but will attend funeral. May God continue to bless you and your family and hold you so very close. Love
