“ Aunt Gail - I am reminded of you daily through out my home; your generosity and loving heart is reflected in the many thoughtful gifts you given me through out the years. The cricket that sits on my end table - a gift to bring our first home luck. The hand knitted blanket you made for George, and the one you made many years before in my college colors. The note that I saved in the Polish dish you gave me one Christmas because you knew I was interested in my heritage. And the many hand written recipes you've sent me over the years. I am sorry I wasn't able to see you one last time - I think you would have really gotten a kick out of George! We love you and are so grateful for the time we had with you. -Katelynn

“ We shared many family memories, pictures and information through the years. I will miss my dear cousin immensely. I wish we could have spoken one last time. I hope she was able to read my recent letter to her, telling her how much I loved her.
Rest peacefully, Gail. You're with your family in heaven now. Give them all a hug from me.
