

Garvin Lamar Farrar

March 12, 1936 - April 26, 2024

Garvin Lamar Farrar passed away on April 26, 2024. He was born on March 12, 1936. The son of Austin and Mary Farrar, he was predeceased by his parents, his beloved wife Betty, his sister Edna Lochamy, and his son, Garvin Farrar. Lamar grew up in, Union Grove, Alabama. He was married to Betty Whitworth Farrar for almost 70 years. After marriage Betty and Lamar moved to Refugio, Texas for almost 20 years and then settled in Georgia. Lamar was an engineer for Transcontinental Gas Pipeline for almost 38 years. Lamar was a dedicated sports fan, particularly of the Alabama Crimson Tide and the Atlanta Braves. He had a knack for setting up multiple TV sets to watch games simultaneously, a testament to his ingenuity and love for sports. In his younger years he enjoyed playing golf and bowling with his wife, coaching his sons in little league baseball and playing on an adult softball league. In retirement Lamar and Betty enjoyed traveling to casinos in North Carolina and Mississippi. He also enjoyed helping family members with projects around their homes. Lamar was devoted to his wife, children and grandchildren. His grandchildren remember playing many games of Rook, and helping him with yard work and his vegetable garden. Left to treasure his memory are sons, Steve (Renee), David (Cindy), and Randy (Lisa); grandchildren Michelle Smith (Shannon), Marie Murphey (Terry), Kristin McCown (George), Scott Farrar (Bethany), Bryan Farrar (Jennifer), Michael Farrar (Kristen), Brooke Barron, Andrew Farrar (Lauren); 15 great grandchildren; sister-in-law Annette (Snookie) Smith and several nieces and nephews. A celebration of Lamar's life will be held Saturday, May 11 at 1:30 pm at Covington First UMC in the Wesley Chapel. In lieu of flowers, consider making a donation for Parkinson's research or to your favorite charity.
