“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ It's just not going to be the same!! You were loved and cherished by so many and we did the best we could yesterday to make much of Jesus and celebrate the life you lived for Him. Those of us who are left here will do our best to see that your precious wife, Peggy, is loved on and looked after.

“ Psalm 51 A discription of a humble and contrite heart. To ask for mercy and forgiveness of sin. Confident and secure in his faith. Daniel 10 Daaniel describes his vision. I saw the great vision, and there remained no strength in me symbolic of lifeless death. He found approval. He received the quickening spirit of immortal life strengthened him. He entered into the Kingdom. Gordon was secure in his faith.

“ *Gordon Boss you were always the calm one in the room. In any situation, I remember your reserve. I learned that from you and it served me well later in life and throughout my life. You touched all our lives. You made me a better person than I may of been without you there and for that I thank you.
Godspeed on your journey, we all hope to see you again.*

“ Today

*Today is the day I could have waited
A little longer to dawn
One of those days
Where I need to be strong*

*So I put on the on a smile
And keep a good face
And try to keep in mind
You're in a better place*

*You taught us so well
You led us in His way
So though we are sad
We'll soon see you one day*

*And on that day we both we laugh
And I'll remember you told us so
Your life pointed the way
And urged us on the road to go*

*So we are sad today
Because it's you we already miss
But we'll try to be strong
Knowing God will carry us beyond this*

*So from where we know you are
Watch us from above
And for a time we'll be sad
But we'll share your love*

“ I'm so glad that Janie and I were able to visit uncle Gordon and Aunt Peggy last year. Uncle Gordon told me a story about how Dad missed curfew and couldn't get into his barracks on the naval base. Dad got his attention through a window and Uncle Gordon open the door. Dad spent the night on the floor beside Uncle Gordon's bunk. The next morning Dad managed to sneak into his own barracks without getting caught.

Uncle Gordon laughed while telling the story and a smile lit up his face. I wish there were time for more stories. Love you Uncle Gordon.

“ I remember Gordon when he worked for Mr. Alton Gray in his grocery store in Poulan, GA. Mr. Gray hired me after Gordon quit but I was younger than Gordon and not much help since I was much too young to drive and deliver groceries as he did. It appears Gordon had a good career, family and life and that is always good to see. H. Harris West

“ Peggy and the whole family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Gordon was a very special man to me. With the history of Peggy and Gordon's relationship with my parents as well as with John & Betty, there is a long time of love there. For quite some time I have felt as close to you both as if you were in fact my family. I will miss him terribly and pray for you Peggy and all the family.
Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and I am so sorry that I am working so far away keeping me from being there.
I love you,

“ 99.99%

I'm not so good in math, at all, but even I know that 99.99% out of 100% there is only, what southern folks call, a smidgen or so close you can spit. Well today as I think of my dad I refer many times to just that 99.99% because that is him all the way. He was a self-made man that always fixed it and if he had to get someone to repair something it was only after he exhausted every bit of his knowledge and after trying many times, only then would he get someone else.

99.99% of the time when the church doors were open or even if something needed done at the church, yep he was there, only if he was sick, or taking his family on a much needed vacation. For the longest time when school was out it meant two things we could count on, first tending to his garden or going camping. An old canvas tent and army cots, Coleman stove and lantern, sleeping bags and for us kids, a place to swim.

The times spent swimming, or fishing with the best zebco had to offer were always the best times. We always thought that vacation was for the kids as we worked “so hard” going to school, not realizing it was 99.99% for my dad and mom to get away, escape for a little time before getting back to the jobs and my dad's commute. When he retired, I remember he said at his retirement deal, “AT&T has been good for me, AND I KNOW I HAVE BEEN GOOD FOR AT&T”, and I thought darn right, go dad!!

So, was my dad ever that 100%, did he ever reach that goal and if so where?

My dad was always 100% in his faith, love and deep admiration for God, and our Lord Jesus Christ and his love for his family and this country.

So with a resounding "YES HE DID" and because of him I believe in God, just as he did and I believe even now in this a sad time, we take comfort knowing that his goal to be with God has been reached and that I and oh so many more that benefited from his witness say “we'll see you soon”.
