“ I just heard of Grace Watts passing. I was her hairstylist for several years up until she just wasn't able to come. I have to say that Grace and I shared a special bond right from the rip. She had told me that her late husband was a barber. And that she missed him cutting her hair. My fondest memory of Grace was the time she was burning leaves in her yard and she got too close to the fire and the fire burned her eyebrows and the front of her hair. Not too bad but we both just chuckled. I kinda picked on her a bit after that but only out of kindness and love. Grace I hope to see you one day, love

“ Mrs. Watts, I can't yet call her Grace, was such a sweet lady. My greatest memory of her was a twinkle in the eye, a sweet smile and a welcoming spirit. As a teenager and buddy of son, Allan, she always made me feel welcomed and appreciated. She is a wonderful Christian woman who has passed that faith on to her son. God bless all of the Watts family in the passing of a great lady. Peace,

“ I am very sorry to hear that Grace has passed away. I am an "old" Sears employee and always enjoyed visiting with her at the Sears retiree luncheons. She was a special lady and I know you will miss her greatly. My condolences to all. Kay Laurenzo

“ I am so sorry to hear of Grace's passing but I can only imagine her joy seeing her sweet husband again. After his death, I think almost every conversation I had with Grace involved stories of how her husband did 'everything' for her! She loved her family and her many Ebenezer church friends! May God grant all of you comfort in your loss and may as the pain of grief subsides, your many memories give you joy in her life well lived.
