“ After 24 years in the military I have come across an immense variety of individuals. It's no coincidence that Harold is one that I have the most fondness for and intense memories of. In the very best way. He was fun, outgoing, brash, and just such a freaking blast to be around.

He was very much my go-to confidant and was present and even a participant for when I proposed to my wife. Our backgrounds couldn't be more different, but he was my battle buddy when we were in AIT and easily one of best all-around good people I've come across.

Harold, your spirit lives on in the awesome family you and Sophie have created, and your memory will live on in my and countless others hearts and minds. Love you bud.

“ Harold has always been a light. In high school he was always the guy that got along with everyone.
I last saw Harold at an Escambia football game last season. And we spoke like we had never lost touch.
I don't remember many classmates. Harold was two years younger than me. But I have always remembered him. Simply because he is unforgettable.
I will see you again my brother. Thank you for being you.

“ Integrity, love for his family and friends, and a love for God. He was truly an amazing man. He was completely selfless in nature with a knack for telling the greatest stories about his life's adventures. It is an honor to have known Harold for the short time I did. Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss; my prayers are with your family during this difficult time.
