“ Dear Shirley...This is Carol Whaley...I am so sorry to hear of Jack's passing. I have, over the years, recalled our time together in Biloxi. I have a letter you had written to me in response to me asking you how you made your iced tea and hushpuppies. You were a good cook and I knew so little. I loved your southern accent and how you "toted" Dickie. Thanks for the fond memories. Carol Nourse. Nourse is my maiden name which I took back after Ron and I parted.

“ I got to know Jack on a Count Team at MCC. I loved his sweet easy spirit and that twinkle in his eyes. I have been missing Jack and Shirley for a while now. This Teate family has always shown me kindness and caring. I love ya'll and am praying for you. -- Bobbie Winkelman
