“ From Angela Dudley: What can I say about Jim he was a unique individual he stole my heart and became the dad I never had he treated me like I was his own. He took me up for my first plane ride around Stone Mountain and I loved it, he had a passion for flying and playing golf so fly high pops you will always be in my heart!

“ On Monday March 2nd, my dad went to be with our Father in Heaven. My favorite memory of my dad is this one time, when i was younger he called me up and said, "call into work and lets go to a football game." I said , "ok!" So there we went. And to my surprise, we snuck in. I worked night shifts so at half time i called my boss to let him know i wouldn't be in that day. Just as i thought i was in the clear, they announced over the loud speaker, "TOUCH DOWN!!" Needless to say i lost my job. But what a great day we had! Love you dad! Rest in peace and fly high!! -Love, Sheila

“ When I first met Jim Brantly it was at Nationwide Insurance. When I walked in the door I noticed that he was busy. I asked do you need some help? He said yes, before I knew it I started working for him not knowing alot. He taught me everything that I knew, even letting me know that he was the captain of the ship..lol.. I said who said that you wasn't..lol.. Jim was the best boss that I've ever had!! He was my boss, friend and even my family!! I will miss him dearly! RIP Jim fly high with the angels ❤️

“ When I think back on my childhood Peepaw is in so many of those memories. Taking me to softball practice and games, teaching me how to drive, taking me up in his plane, and even signing up and taking karate with me. He was always there. Sometimes after karate or a softball game, we would make a detour on the way home so we could have a blizzard from Dairy Queen together, but it was always our secret and Grandmaw couldn't know about it. He loved to aggravate and pick at everyone around and laugh about it when they got upset. I will forever miss him and cherish the many memories I have with him. I love you always Peepaw!

“ Dad was always there if you needed him for anything. He loved to go skating with me and the grandkids. He tried his best to teach me how to play golf. At least he had fun trying. He would take us flying and make little jokes like he didn't remember how to do something just to see your eyes pop wide open in shock. Fun Fun memories.. Love you dad. Fly high, enjoy the view and rest in peace. Love You..
