“ I first met James in Nov. 2015 while walking the property line next door when I was considering purchasing the property. He came over to the fence and asked if I was going to buy it. I asked what he knew about the property and he gave me the family history. We talked about many things that first day and I knew he would make a good neighbor and was a determining factor in my purchasing the property.

We would meet many times at the fence or while mowing the drive, etc. and talk about the weather, politics, family, and life in general. One time I got my small tractor stuck in the mud and I called and asked if he could come and pull me out with his bigger tractor. He said he'd be over shortly and he was there within 10 minutes and got me going again which I appreciated so much.

James was a special neighbor and I'll miss him greatly.

My condolences to Brenda and the family and friends and pray God will give you all healing and peace.

“ Big Jimmy! He was a Man's Man, as a 15 year old boy, he taught me without saying a word, to work hard, love your family and to enjoy life. He would treat you like family even if you wasn't, I always respected him and still do, if I can be half the man Big Jimmy was, I will be a whole man in the end! ”
