“ Jimmy was a character and was in several of my classes in high school. Later in life we enjoyed meeting them with others from our high school days for lunch. He loved Cindy and his family and spoke of them in our conversations. Cindy I am so very sorry for you and your families loss. May god bless you all .

Cindy and boys, I don't think I ever remember seeing Jimmy when he wasn't happy. At our 50 year Class Reunion I was able to just sit with Jimmy and talk. I'm so glad I had that short time to just sit with him. Laughing and remembering the good times from our school days. May God give you peace, comfort and His grace to face the days and weeks ahead. Sending my love.

Thank you to all that commented. I'm still in shock and some denial. Reading the heartfelt comments proves to me that you all knew the real Jimmy. He loved me and our boys and their families with total devotion. He was a good friend to everybody, generous and caring without limit. I don't know what I'll do without him. ❤️💔
