“ I’ll never forget the time Jimmy decided we needed a monkey. So we went to a store in Colombia Mall and they actually had one. So he got it. One day he had this monkey wrapped around his arm in the kitchen and the monkey started using the bathroom on his arm. I have never seen Jimmy all shades of green. It was hilarious watching him.

Deleda and family, You are in my thoughts and prayers. I always enjoyed talking with Jimmy. I especially found strength and comfort from you and him sharing stories of some of your struggles. Thanks for being Christian examples and encouragers to others. Praying you find strength and comfort in your family, friends and memories during this difficult time. I will miss him too! Christian love, Susan White
