“ Janet was a dedicated young lady, starting when she first walked in the door at Motorola on Panola Industrial Blvd. She had an up hill battle in a male dominated service business. She persevered, becoming the shop manager in Mobile and moving on to bigger assignments within the organization. My condolences go out to her family and many friends. The Motorola family has lost a wonderful person.

“ I had the honor of working with and being trained by Janet as well as being her Manager at Motorola for many years. On our team whenever we came across something that we didn't know how to address, we always had a saying - WWJD? Which was Motorola-speak for What Would Janet Do? :)

I also remember her being very patient with our mistakes, but when she had explained something to me more than 2-3 times, she'd start the sentence "Now, Jim...." You usually remembered after that!

She was a hard worker, always made her dates, and was loved by all. We'll miss her!

Very sorry to hear this and Janet also impacted my life and career at Moto. When I came in as a rookie Janet also trained and mentored me. I called her "Mother Dobbs" behind her back out of respect and awe. She took me in as one of the new kids and took such great care of me. She taught me so much and gave me strength when I was down. Heaven is a busy place and God must have needed some help with project management as She is the "Best of the Best".
