“ I was always welcome in the Lacey home. As a good friend of Karen throughout high school, Mrs. Lacey was another mother to me, confidant and giver of sage wisdom. I loved her then, I will miss her now. May she rest in the eternal peace. God bless this beautiful woman.

She was such a beautiful person, inside and out. I never saw her without that infectious smile. She was a wonderful mother-in-law, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She will be terribly missed, but my fond memories of her will forever be in my heart.
