“ I will always love you, I will always miss you. You were the best mother and friend I have ever known.

Mom raised 10 children and she worked very hard to preserve her family. Her entire life was dedicated to us, and our father. She liked to travel, she liked to decorate, she loved playing her organ as she loved music, she loved dance. She was a great cook. She kept an immaculate home even when the family was smaller, always had something great to eat, and took care of herself with pride. I never knew how she did it all, she just did it, and I am amazed by her dedication and spirit. Her commitment and the skills she had self taught herself would have made any business successful, but she chose to dedicate to her family. That she did. I never heard her complain about her choice. She was so very accommodating, always trying to make others comfortable. She would go to great lengths to protect the ones she cared for and found it hard to resist the hug of a small child or rocking a baby. Her laugh was contagious, her smile was a silent giggle and she was as sweet a mother as I could ever ask for. She was also a very brilliant woman, she taught by example, she never pushed you to accept life choices, she helped you to weigh them out and no matter what it would be. She just wanted us to be happy in life, that is all she ever wanted. Her photo is from glamour shots and it was not like her to be primped for photography, but the day she took this picture she was so giddy with excitement that they made her look like a movie star she said. You are mom, the biggest star there is! We miss you very much. We love you forever.
