“ Sending condolences to the Johnson family. I see where Jonathan gets his height, and want to comment that John certainly raised a fine young man. I am sure he is proud of Jonathan just as I am proud to be associated with him through Oglethorpe University. I recommend a wonderful anthology of poetry titled "The Art of Losing" (Kevin Young, editor) for comfort during the coming days and years. I hope it will bring you some of the peace and restfulness that it has brought me.
Blessings and big hugs,

“ My favorite memories of John are the times when my wife Carole and myself would visit John and Gloria in their first starter home in Phenix City, eat at a little table with four chairs, and jump in the long bed to watch tv in an otherwise empty home. John and Gloria were so proud of that home, and we of Them.
