“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

Dear Gwen, no words can completely console you as you grieve during this sad and difficult time. I hope you find comfort and peace in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus and especially in knowing that you will see Warren again. Taylor and I have many wonderful fond memories of Warren and his abounding kindness and willingness to help whenever someone was in need, including us. He is one of the sweetest and most generous men I've ever known and it was so obvious how much he deeply loved you. Our the heartfelt sympathy and love goes out to you and your family. Gwen, How blessed you are to have been able to share your life with Warren. Praying God will bring you comfort and peace We know Warren is singing and praising Jesus. I will miss him so much at choir practice. He always had a hug for me. I love you both so much and my heart aches for you but also know God will put his loving arms around you and help see you through this difficult time. My prayers are with you.
