“ So shocked, saddened, and heartbroken to hear the news about Jon. I go back 25+ years knowing the Carter Family through Rockdale Baptist Church. Jon along with dad, Dave and brother Greg remodeled my home in Conyers.. There is no finer example of a godly Christian family. Worshiping together at Rockdale Baptist and all of our love for the Georgia Bulldogs united me with this wonderful family. I have many fond memories of attending Georgia games with Jon and Greg. Growing up in the Nashville area Dave made sure his boys became Bulldogs. Even though Mike went to Georgia Tech deep down he was a DAWG just doing a little mission work at Tech. According to Jon growing up in Nashville during football season all of them would get into the car drive to a higher elevation in order to hear the broadcast of Georgia football on the Bulldog radio station, WSB.. What a special gem Jeannette is to this family. Jon was modest, reserved but his light radiated by his actions toward others. Jon was always willing and eager to help.

I have now lived up in Hiwassee going on 9 years and on many occasions passing the different trail heads I think of Jon and the whole Carter family remembering their love for the outdoors and hiking through the north Georgia mountains. Jeannette would be right with her boys. I live less than 5 miles from the Appalachian Trail head on top of Helen Mountain. Jon and Greg would share with me their hiking experiences. Living up here is a big step closer to heaven.

My thoughts and my prayers go out to each of you in the days ahead. What a blessing for me having known this special family. .

“ I would say "Big Bad J O N" and he would reply "Big Bad Neil." That's the way Jon and I greeted each other at Chick -Fil- A almost every morning around 6:30 a.m. Monday through Friday. During this time, we became good friends.

The thing that stood out the most for me was how HAPPY Jon was all the time and he was always reading the Word from his Bible every morning. One specific area that he pointed out to me was to take care of widows, which Jon did continuously.

This life on earth is temporary and our real life is eternal, beginning when Christ became Lord over our lives. I think this was Jon's motto. Our life on earth is just a journey and our real life is in heaven. Jon's death makes us sad because we are separated from him, but, what a joy it is knowing we will one day be united with him forever. In the meantime, we shall all miss Jon, a husband, a father and a friend.

Jon Carter was the sweetest man at RBC! I know all the scriptures and I rejoice that he is in the presence of the Lord, but today, I struggle understanding why God needed him more than us, who will fill his awesome shoes? I look forward to loving on Kristi and Gracie just like he would want me too! So glad to hear that Jon enjoyed Mad Dogs. The owner of Mad Dogs was very saddened and sends his regards to all of his family. Your memories are hanging all over RBC and everyone that knew you loved you. Hugs and Prayers throughout the year to all of his sweet family. Dianne Sullens.

Kristi, Gracie, Jeanette and David and all of Jon's beloved family, What a massive loss for you, and also for many others! Jon truly knew how to be a friend. He definitely had the gift of servanthood, and he allowed His Lord to minister to many through him. I was so very blessed to get to be a recipient of his friendship and service. Jon was a perfect example of dependability. If he said he would do something, he showed up! How I loved and appreciated Jon Carter! Praying for you constantly.
