“ Brad and I go back a long ways, we served together in the U S Navy Sea Bees, Brad was a lot of fun to be with or just being around him, I remember one thing he did not like was the frigid cold blowing off the ocean when we was in home port in Rhode Island, him being from the south with thin blood lol, have thought of him many times over the years and I know he will be missed by all, still love you old buddy but I know you are in a better place
