Thanks Alyson for your kind words and for sharing your memories of Joyce. Thanks for "stalking me on Facebook". I guess I'm an honorary O'Kelley now! We will all miss Joyce terribly, but she lives on in us.

What a beautiful tribute to your mom Tommy. And I KNOW her classmates were right when they named her the most likely to succeed.. Her success is evident in her kids and her grandkids. Travis, Austin, Reed, and Carmen -you all were very blessed to have Nanny Joyce as your grandmother. I heard so much about you all - even though I only met Reed and Carmen once when they were little kids. She loved both Tommy and Wanda, but you 4 kids were the apple of her eye. Like Tommy said, continue to make her proud.

Joyce was a trail blazer at Georgia-Pacific. She encouraged me and several other women to not be afraid to speak up and speak out if we saw an inequity at work. She forced me - yes, forced me to apply for higher positions. I was more afraid of disappointing HER than not getting the jobs. I owe a lot to her. She gave me lots of great professional and personal advise. She will be missed.

“ Joyce O'Kelley Dyar was more than an aunt to me. She was my second mother,my friend,my shrink. She always had wisdom to impart on anyone that would listen.She had a strong will and never let anyone back her away from what she firmly believed. I can give so many memories of her but the most resent one was her words of 'Im proud of you'. I always strived for approval but to hear those words come from her was more than gold.She will not leave us completely because she became a part of everyone she met. I love you Aunt Joyce and i am happy and proud to have you in my heart.

Love
Chuck

“ In loving memory of "Grandma Joyce". A wonderful friend, co-worker, and surrogate grandmother to my Barker Boys. Joyce gave me great advice about work, about kids, and mostly about life. She was loving and honest - so if you weren't ready to hear HER honest opinion about something, then don't ask her. She always pushed me to do more, speak up, and fight for what I wanted. But she did so with love, kindness, and unbelievable strength. I will always admire the pride she had in her work and the love she had for her family.

“ My sincere thoughts of comfort and may the love of the Father's arms surround you. I knew Joyce when I was at Prospect UMC. She was a kind and loving lady, with a smile for everyone. We were still facebook friends and it just seems days ago I had a post from her. Rest in peace sweet one. See you. Anne White
