“ Dearest Jill and Jan and extended families, Our hearts are very sadden with the loss of your precious mother. We will always remember her warm smile, loving attitude and abounding energy! She loved life and loved her family! Always living each day with a servants heart, she epitomized the definition of a Jesus follower! Her example of a caring, loving heart...her willingness to always give a helping hand, whether being through her time, her talent with playing the piano or just always having a kind word to express...this is the wonderful legacy she leaves to her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. An exceptional woman who always let her “light shine” wherever she was! We will miss her more than words can express, but we celebrate her as she is with our Heavenly Father now! Much love to each of you, Daphene and Richard Ward

“ Joyce Williams 🥹🥹 receiving news that you have left us is so painful. We will miss you and I was looking forward to a time when we can visit with you, laugh and share the word of God. Joyce when I set my eyes on you, I sensed a sweet spirit and it was easy that we connected. I enjoyed being your caregiver. Birds of the same feathers flock together. We both loved hymns and once you got on the piano, wow! we would sing together, change the atmosphere and invite the presence of God. Phil1:21 To live is Christ to die is gain, the heaven is rejoicing to welcome a worshippers. Till we meet again Rest with the angels. I loved you so much, God loved you more. ❤️
