In 1994 I moved into Honey Creek across the street from Joyce. It was a daily enjoyment to see Joyce and her dog, Princess, walking. We would stop and chat. What a lovely lady. And then, several years later, I was amazed that Joyce, seven years my senior, was still cutting her grass after I had turned my lawn over to the landscapers.. She will, indeed, be missed.

“ Can't say how much you're gonna be missed. It's really gonna hit home when the holidays come around again and I don't find myself at your house or out at the lake with you. It won't seem real...

“ Joyce, you will be forever missed, by me your only niece on your side of family. Your arms brought me home from the hospital when I was born, 73 years ago. I love the memories told by you. I know you are in heaven with your love and the rest of our family gone before you. Sheryl Whitfield Jacobs.
