Thank you Ted, for making it possible for myself, and others, to view this very moving Memorial Service for Mom!! The entire Tribute is beautiful, and I know Mom would approve. I love you Mom and will miss you, but I'll see you again.

Thank you to all who attended in person as well as joined the live stream for Judy's memorial service on Saturday. Apparently, there were technical difficulties with the timely start of the recording from the beginning at 3 pm. The video posted on here picks up 10-15 minutes into the service after Pastor James and I spoke. I have reached out to Scot Ward and requested that they look into this matter. However, my apologies to all of the remote attendees who did not get to see the first part of the service using the live stream or replay. - Ted Shoop

“ We have so many wonderful memories with Judy, and of course Ron too! Their family was part of our family for many years. Judy has left a beautiful legacy full of wonderful memories! I remember first meeting Judy and her warm smile made us feel so comfortable. With Judy you always would know you are loved. Her heart went out to all who knew her. She was always there to help and offer good advice. Loving memories and fun times share a place in our hearts when ever we think of Judy. Rest In Peace dear friend. 🌹

“ Only Judy and Ron Shoop along With my wife Shirley would know of the wonderful times we spent together meeting at different places across the country with our motorhomes and everything we had in common. In the Atlanta area traveling between our homes we have eaten more meals together then one could imagine. It appears one of our favorite things was eating and we all four did a wonderful job of it. Oh yes, it was days gone by, however being the only survivor I can vouch for the fact that there was never and unkind word between the four of us or any thoughts that would resemble anything except the wonderful satisfaction of pleasure being with one another. What a wonderful loving family and friends galore. Ron was very blessed and is now with his wonderful wife, praise the LORD for they both have won. The four of us will be together again, AMEN Roscoe Trivett
