“ You are the most amazing person I ever met. You showed me something that could never be duplicated. You were genuinely yourself and gave as much as the world push at you. My always trying the most complicated balancing act libra. You shine even in death brighter then anything on this planet. You were too good for this world and know I feel you in every movement I smell you in every wind blow and I'll love you til I see you again my love. But I know your with me in every moment. Just know your absence is felt thru out the world

“ Today is the day that we celebrate an awesome persons day she was born. Doesn't seem real that only a few months ago you took time out of your day to come see me. I will always cherish that day. The mom you were to your babies. The best friend you were to Phenix. The day before you left us, she told me how much she loves you and that you are her best friend. The day you left, man I promise that day will never be forgotten as it was one of the hardest days I've ever had. Never thought I could have a true female friend where friendship was the only strong bond. But you showed me that's possible. My Prayers are that you are resting easy and peacefully because peace is what you gave me knowing Phenix was in good hands. So long my friend. Know that you will never leave my heart. Missing you and loving you always.
Happy Birthday.

I agree with Kason. You were a truly good friend. You always made sure that other people were taken care of and put others first. I will never forget our talks we used to have about life. You will always be in my thoughts. Tell my dad Hi for me! :)

“ Kaytie, I remember your big, warm beautiful smile! Shopping for you, caring for you and taking you to the hospital when you were in labor, for the birth of your beautiful Princess, Phenix Rayne-Marie Laster. You enjoyed eating my homemade macaroni & cheese. We miss you terribly! Please know, you'll always be loved and remembered! Peace/love/Blessings. 🙏❤️🍀🌸

“Katie was so vibrant and a very charismatic young soul. I'll never forget that bright red hair and her glasses always falling down her nose. Her laugh always put a smile on my face. I enjoyed the times she would come visit and we would just sit and chat. She was always so happy when she would see her nephew, Victor. She will forever be missed. My deepest condolences to her family and friends.
