“ I did not personally know Katie, but her parents Jane & Bill Hallman from our Church. I have known them around a couple years. I went to the visitation & funeral for them. I'm very saddened for their Loss of such a young & beautiful person. I could tell from the service & outpouring of Love from friends & relatives giving their testimonies that she was very Loved & will missed dearly. I hope her family & friends find peace & comfort in the Cherished memories of Katie & know that she is at peace.

“ *My sweet Katie,
You were everything that was right in the world. Your light shined so bright. You lit up every room you ever entered. Your laugh was contagious and your spirit just bubbled over with love. You made everyone feel so important and loved. I will carry your beautiful soul with me for the rest of my days. I am a better person for knowing and being loved by you. My heart aches for you not being here but I am so blessed to have called you a lifelong friend. I will see you again my Petunia. With all the love my heart can stand...*

“ Dear family and friends of sweet Katie,

My heart aches with all who share in this sorrowful loss.

Katie has always been an important part of me. She was one of my best childhood friends, and her brilliant, playful spirit, incredibly generous nature, fantastic sense of humor, strength of character, and gentle wisdom formed a forever place in my heart. We had fallen out of touch, but I hope she knows how often the thought of her has brought me happiness, how much I have always admired her.

Katie is one of those rare souls that seems to be made of pure light, and the kind of person we should all aspire to be. Of those of us lucky enough to have known her, is there anyone who isn't warmed inside-out just by picturing her glowing smile? Growing up, she was a champion for the underdog, sticking up for her friends, always cheering up people who needed cheering and making people laugh who needed a laugh. No one had a bigger heart. Utterly unselfish, unique, and inspiring, living life like a poem, there's no doubt Katie made a powerfully positive impact on this world. I will forever cherish the memories of the precious little time we shared together; she means so much to me and so many others, and I am so grateful to have known her, beautiful spirit.

I'm truly sorry I can't be at the memorial service to honor her; I will be there in spirit. My thoughts and prayers are with you all, family and friend-family, sending solace and condolences.

In heartfelt sympathy,

Nora Lincoln

“ Our hearts are breaking for the loss of this kind, sweet, and gentle soul. Katie was one of the most caring and genuine people to ever grace this earth and we were all so blessed to have a little bit of time in her all-too-short life.

Many years ago, when we first moved to Tampa, the Murray family visited and Katie stayed with us pretty much the entire time. Our son, Drew, was probably in the 2nd grade and Katie in the 3rd. They were joined at the hip the whole time. They played in the pool until I was worried they would always look like little prunes and I can't begin to tell you what a tremendous time they had together and the bond that formed between them. Like I always told people - every game they played and competed in little Katie would kick little Drew's ass!!!

We fell in love with her, which we all know was instantaneous, and will always love her.
