“ I have known Kenneth since first grade and we were good friends through those years. When Mike and I got married we were friends with Kenneth and Kathy and enjoyed many good times together. Kenneth was always kind and thoughtful. We were both in the jr. and sr. plays together in high school. I did not have a car and without being asked Kenneth drove me to and from every practice and to the play each night we performed. Kenneth, Elaine, Judy and I had many good times as teen agers just being friends and having fun times together. I will always cherish those memories. Rest in peace Kenneth. Until we meet again.

Ken and I were members of First Baptist Atlanta choir for several years. He was an excellent singer and always had something funny to say. I missed him when he had to leave the choir and kept in touch with him as often as possible. I know that he is singing and praising God in heaven. Rest in peach, Ken.

Corlyn and I knew Ken for about 35+ years. We sang in the PCBC choir together and in a quartet as well. Always cordial, friendly, and laughed at my jokes. We loved each other's company and loved the Lord as well. A good Christian brother. Will be missed.

Ken was one of the first people I met when I joined the neighborhood church choir: Probably the kindest and most humble soul in the room that day. And I was so happy to see him again when we moved to another nearby church. Every time we gathered for practice or Sunday morning, Ken would always shake my hand with the same sincere smile you see in the picture on this page.

Whenever you meet a kind soul who greets you with a firm handshake and a warm smile, you have a great start toward a friendship with someone who finds comfort wearing his godly soul on the outside. And although I will greatly miss Ken, I know he will always be nearby. For I will always carry a bit of Ken with me whenever I meet someone, shake their hand, and give them a sincere smile.

Rest in peace, Brother. Save me a choir seat!
