“ Kevin was my paw paw i wish he was here with me today. But i remember when it happened. We got a call while we were eating with grandma sue. We had to leave the restaurant to go to the hospital. I remembered that he had died that day while i was in the other room. We all miss you paw paw. I was 9 when he passed. I am 14 now and i still miss and love you as much I did then.

Much love, Your grandson Easton

“ Randy and Sue, we were so sorry to hear about Kevin. We enjoyed him so much as a wonderful “kid” in the neighborhood (Cheryl Jean). He was always active and spent many days with other kids in our pool on warm summer days. I also spent some afternoons tutoring Kevin. He was such an enjoyable young guy to have around. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and his children and grandchildren.
