“ Kim was a great guy and a good friend. I knew him through the jukebox hobby and like clockwork, every Chicago show, he would bring me a stack of 78RPM records that he picked for me and we would hang out.

I will miss his funny anecdotes and his "presence" in our lives.

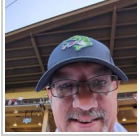

Our deepest condolences to Kim's family.

“ Kim was my father's best friend and a wonderful friend to our entire family. He was one of the nicest, funniest, and most generous people I have ever met. He and Peggy were always there for my dad and for our family, during the happy times and during the difficult ones. Kim was a treasure and we will miss him so much.

There is some comfort in knowing he's with Daddy now, and if there are jukeboxes there, they'll find a way to load them onto a truck.

*With all my love,
Jennifer (Buddy's daughter)*

“ my condolences to the family.
i lived across the street from Kim growing up in Reading Ohio.
enjoyed our youth together, especially climbing the neighbors peach tree and stealing fresh fruit, the lady would yell out her back door and we would run and laugh. it stopped when i broke a big branch off the tree and they got ahold of our parents.
RIP Kim.

My daughter, Kelli, met Kim at Edwards Middle School playing basketball. She loved it. Our family came to know his family and shared the love of basketball. My husband and I would run into Kim and Peggy at various restaurants and start talking about our kids. He so dearly loved his family.

“ I met Kim when I was in my teenage years working for willie vines. We were on a pick in Anniston at a mans warehouse named jack Suggs. I remember loading his truck up on Saturday's. That was probably in the late 1980s. We reconnected in the last 10 years and was lucky enough to see him on Dec 10, when he came over to Birmingham to pick up a speaker he bought. He was a great guy and one of the best people I knew.. he had honor and integrity... I will miss him... billy Weller

I have known Kim most of my life. We did many things together from playing softball, to fishing in Canada, bowling, going to Cincinnati Reds and Bengal games. The details of all those activities but the one memory I will never forget; Kim was best man at my wedding. Rest In Peace my old friend.
