“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ Dear Family,
I am very sorry for your loss. However, Almighty God has provided a guarantee of a resurrection to all men by resurrecting Jesus from the dead. (Psalm 83:18; Acts 17:31) We will be able to see our loved ones again on this earth. (Psalm 37:11, 29) May the wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of God bring you peace and comfort until that time. (Exodus 31:3)

“ Terri and I met Kim and David 30 years ago when we bought property and built our home next door to them on Riverbend Drive. They embody everything that having good neighbors can mean. We were privileged to see our children grow up with and play with their children, and to later share the joys and stories of grandparenthood with them.

We will miss the warm and radiant smile Kim always had, and most especially the sparkle in her eyes when we talked about our kids and grandkids. She was so happy to be blessed with having her family nearby and to enjoy their frequent gatherings at her home. I will never be able to mow my lawn again without remembering Kim doing the same next door.

May God bless David, their children and grandchildren, and all of their family and friends.

*Back in May 2015 I had gone to Unity Grove Elem. to see a friend who was retiring. I looked all over for Kim while I was there and never found her. She and I worked together at MPS for 18 yrs. . I loved her dearly!! We had great times together at MPS. I was in Italy at the time of her death and grieved that I could not go to the funeral. My prayers are with the family. She will be missed greatly!

Kim you all ways had that smile that every one liked. When some one needed help you was all ways there to help, even when you was tired or did not feel good you still did it and not said a word. Your all ways had that sparkle in your eye when talked about your family. But I know you are up in your heavenly home walking those golden streets with your love ones that is there and spreading those angels wings you got Saturday around your family and friends down here on earth! My friend you will truly be missed. But I know I will see you in again heaven one these day!

“ I will never forget the times Kim and I spent together as teenagers. We had great times spending the night at each other's homes. Cruising from the skating ring in Conyers to the Straw Hat in Lithonia sharing a bucket to sit on in an old jeep with our fellows who eventually became our husbands. We would not have been any happier if we had been riding in a brand new Cadillac. Later in life we spent many wonderful weekends roughing it at Wild Cat Creek with our children. As our families grew and life got busier our times together became fewer but never any less special. I will always carry her memory in my heart. Love you and miss you my dear friend.

“ Tamara,
Our prayers are with you. There are few words to say when this happens. Even when Lazarus died, the bible says, "Jesus Wept." We love you and your family and are here for you if you need us. Even though I didn't know your mom, I do know that she had to be a special lady to have a daughter as loving as you are. Her spirit lives on in you.

Kim was one of the kindest, most selfless people I have ever known. She and I served side by side for many years pulling lunch duty and bus duty together. She never complained-she just always showed up and gave her all, and then some more. Many times, the most stressed students she served found her huge heart and settled back into a good place. She was more than a co-worker, she was a true friend. In an age of selfish, self-promoting people, she stood out as an example of humility and kindness. All of us will miss her gentle spirit, but I do believe she left a good portion of it behind for those willing to embody it. We should all be like Kim. My condolences go to the family; I know you will miss her. May God lift you and support you in the days ahead.
