I don't know, maybe! We live really close to his lake house and would boat over to him and hang out sometimes. Kyle was special to our young som too. Also led small group together at Lake Oconee Church. Does that help? :) I plan to post more memories soon “ Kyle was so extremely special to me and everyone who had the honor to know him. I am so grateful that he was in my life and for all of the memories we shared. I still can't believe he is gone and I keep wanting to text him and tell him about all of this. I keep wanting to laugh with him and be silly like we would be. I keep waking up and remembering he's gone all over again. There are some lights who shine so brightly you just never expect them to go out. He was that for so many of us. I found this poem and I wanted to dedicate it to Kyle. I promise to be a rememberer of all that you were and all that we shared until we meet again.

*We are the rememberers,
the people left behind...
to keep the ones who've gone from us
alive in heart and mind.*

and preserve a legacy...
Yes, we are the rememberers
and we will always be.*

*When those we love have left this earth,
we still can feel them near.
We'll see a picture, hear a song,
and it's just like they're here...*

*And when we call upon our faith
when we believe and trust,
we know the ones we care about
are always close to us.*

“ Kyle was one of the brightest lights I've ever known. We were in small group together the past 2 years and what an impression he left on my heart. He was one of the most inspiring Christians I've ever come in contact with... He truly walked the walk. His energy and zest for life were absolutely contagious. He always went above and beyond for everyone and was so intentional with his words and actions. Despite his medical issues, he had the most beautiful outlook on life. I'm so grateful for the time I got to spend with Kyle the past 2 years. I believe we've all been changed for the better for having Kyle in our lives.

“ Remembering all the good times with Kyle as he’s laid to rest today. He was, without a doubt, one of the most selfless, sweetest souls on this earth. Even though we hadn’t seen each other since pre-pandemic & hadn’t met my little one yet, he still remembered to reach out a few weeks ago to wish me a happy Mother’s Day. We never got to take that “nugget” trip to his lake house or celebrate a post-pandemic Thanksgiving Eve together, but he’ll forever live on in our hearts & memories. Praying for all his friends & family. Fly high, Kyle!

“ Very difficult to say goodbye to one of the most genuine, caring, thoughtful, and intelligent people I will have ever met. He's served as a life-changing mentor for me and many close friends since we were teenagers, always a beacon of positivity and influence to everyone around him. His passing is a great loss, but his impact to those around him will always survive.

“ There are few people in life that you meet that make such a lasting impression, and Kyle was one of them. When I suddenly lost my brother a few years ago, he was one that continued to check on me and my well-being, long after others forgot.

A truly special man that I will miss greatly. Fly high and spread your wings Kyle, you are free, my friend, you are free.

*Weep not for Me
(By Constance Jenkins)*

*Weep not for me though I am gone;
into that gentle night.
Grieve if you will but not for long,
upon my soul's sweet flight.
I am at peace,
my soul's at rest.
There is no need for tears.
For with your love I was blessed;
for all those many years.
There is no pain,
I suffer not,
The fear now all is gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts.
In your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath;
remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death,
but celebrate my life.*

“ I remember once when Kyle was still in elementary school they had to memorize a poem and dress up according to the character. I was just blown away by Kyle. He memorized this incredibly long poem and didn't miss one word. He had poise and confidence and I was so impressed with his ability to engage the crowd and not break a sweat. He and my son were always the best of friends as they traveled through their school careers with honors and great hopes for their futures. Kyle had so much talent and enthusiasm and he was also very smart. He would just tackle any task and be so successful at whatever he did. His sweet soul will forever be in our hearts. We will never forget him. May God send you His peace in abundance and know that you also are in our hearts and prayers always.
