“ For some odd reason, I thought about Lee tonight for the 1st time in a loooong time, we lost touch long time ago, but he was a great friend to me & we met when I played in the band Faultline back in 2000. Lee was always kind, funny, loved to dance & brought great vibes to every show Faultline did. I had no idea he dies but all of a sudden tonight, the thought hit me that Lee was dead, I researched his name on line & am absolutely shocked. I loved this man like a brother, I am a believer in Jesus Christ, he always knew my faith, yet always loved Me and was kind to me, we had our times when we banged heads & did not agree but...I hate what happened to him, I found out by searching on line. Lee, you are loved bro.

“ This is so shocking! I worked with Lee a long time ago. He was the kindest smartest, most considerate, loving person that I have ever met. The world has lost an angel. I wish his lifelong soulmate and family peace and solace during this difficult time. Please accept my sympathy. I know he is enjoying quesadillas and Godiva chocolate in heaven. you will be sadly missed Lee!
