“ I will always remember Levi as a remarkable individual whose kindness and generosity touched everyone fortunate enough to know him. Levi was more than a colleague in the payroll profession—he was a beacon of encouragement, a mentor, and a true friend.

His passion for payroll was unmatched. He didn't just see it as a job; he saw it as a way to serve others, to ensure fairness, and to uphold trust. He believed deeply in the power of community and worked tirelessly to lift others up—whether by sharing knowledge, offering guidance, or simply being a listening ear when someone needed support.

What set Levi apart was his heart. He gave freely of his time and wisdom, never asking for anything in return. He celebrated the successes of others as if they were his own and reminded us of all that collaboration and kindness are the cornerstones of our profession.

As we honor his memory, let us carry forward his legacy: to encourage, to uplift, and to lead with compassion. Though he is no longer with us, his impact will live on in the countless lives he touched and the payroll community he loved so dearly.

Rest in peace, dear friend. You will be missed but never forgotten.

“ I meet Levi at the Atlanta Payroll Chapter. I rembered him talking about Congress and got emotional during his speech. I wanted to know more about Congress and how can I go.

When I went it was everything Levi said and better. When I returned back from Congress and we spoke about it, and I too got emotional. Levi said, "see I told you".

You will be missed Levi. Rest well.

“ Levi Meeske, you are one of a kind. Generous, Caring, full of life, our friend. You will be forever missed in our hearts, in our memories and in our organizations. Your first Congress was enlightening, you never saw that many people that loved payroll as much as you all in 1 place. You were amazed and became a Payroll Ambassador. Payroll Man of the Year. And for 2025, you are our Man of the Year.

“ Levi had a way of making every interaction feel genuine, as if you were the only person in the room who mattered at that moment. His laughter, his empathy, and his ability to turn ordinary moments into lasting memories are what I’ll carry with me.

He believed in people — not just in what they could do, but in who they were — and that belief changed lives. He reminded us that kindness and integrity are strengths, and that showing up for one another is what truly defines community.

Levi’s absence leaves an ache that words can’t really touch, but the example he set will keep shaping us for a long time. I’m endlessly grateful to have known him and called him one of my best friends.

“ I met Levi at the first Greater Atlanta Payroll Association meeting I attended in 2022. He was the Payroll Man of the Year at the time and I was a little "star struck". However, I got to know him very quickly and he was so much fun. He brought life to his presentations and his ideas have helped to shape the Greater Atlanta Chapter. We will miss your enthusiasm and love for payroll and Payroll Org. You have left a hole in a lot of hearts.

“ I met Levi for the first time at the Chapter celebration meeting in December 2010. I have been in the USA for a total of 10 days.

I remember Levi introducing me to everyone and then mentioned that he would be going to Congress in May. After the meeting I approached him and asked him, “What is Congress?” His eyes lit up and said let me tell you..... I have been to every congress since 2012.

Rest in Peace my friend, I will miss you!

“ From the moment I met Levi at my very first chapter meeting, he became a constant bright spot in my life. His smile was always waiting for me and so was his hug. That simple gesture, repeated time and again, made me feel seen, welcomed, and valued.

Levi’s love for the payroll profession was unmistakable. He brought energy, passion, and a big personality to every conversation, every event, every initiative. But what I’ll remember most is how he challenged us, not just to do more, but to be more. He believed in the power of our community and pushed us to stretch, to grow, and to lead whether within our chapter or on the national level.

Levi didn’t just promote the profession. He elevated it. And in doing so, he elevated all of us. He will be missed.

“ Levy’s enthusiasm about payroll filled the room no matter where he was. It will be missed when we gather for meetings and for congress. A life gone way too soon.

“ I have sooooo many memories of this man. We would see each other every year at the annual payroll conferences and his pure joy and enthusiasm for our profession and those in it was inspiring. He was incredibly creative making our event costume contests very interesting to say the least. His incredible smile always made the room brighter and he will be a huge loss leaving a large hole in these events. His very caring and nurturing soul will be greatly missed. Fly high sweet man
