“ Many years ago I was hired to clean for Mr. Clint and Mrs. JoAnne. They were the sweetest couple who showed love in everything they did. Oftentimes, we sat down for lunch together and Mrs. JoAnne taught me how make the best homemade pimento cheese. They always had a special treat for both of my children each time we visited. They even purchased them Christmas gifts. Years later, Mr. Clint lost the love of his life. He loved Jo so much and she was the center of many conversations to come between he and I. While I do miss our talks, I find solace in knowing that almost 11 years later, he is with his love again. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Rest In Peace Mr. Clint.
