“ SO Sorry to read of your loss, Virginia. May God give you comfort and peace during this upcoming holiday season. The first holidays without him will be hard, but lean on our Lord to see you through. Prayers from an old friend, Linda Smith

“ Lewis was an amazing Christian man who was the first neighbor I met after moving to Conyers. I enjoyed talking to him and hearing stories about his life. I will miss seeing him at the mailbox and chatting about random trivia, which we both were quite fond of discussing. Brightest of blessings to his family and all his loved ones.

“ My condolences to Virginia and family. You were neighbors to my parents, Louie & Christine George. I remember you giving money to my granddaughter when she graduated High school and went on a mission trip. Thank you also for the kindness shown when mother and daddy passed on to heaven. But as we know heaven is a wonderful place that God has put in our hearts.
